

TRIBUTE TO THE SHOREFRONT
JEWISH COMMUNITY COUNCIL

HON. JERROLD NADLER

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 1995

Mr. NADLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a truly remarkable organization, the Shorefront Jewish Community Council, as they celebrate their 20th anniversary.

The council aids and assists over 13,000 people a year. The resettlement activities of the council have integrated scores of emigres from the former Soviet Union into American society and work force. The actions of the Shorefront Jewish Community Council have also contributed to a revitalization of many area neighborhoods.

I would also like to congratulate the excellent work of the staff and volunteers of the council led by their president, Harry Schwartz, and executive director, Judah H. Klein.

At a time of fiscal restraint, neighborhood organizations will play an ever-increasing role in aiding those in need. I am fortunate to have the Shorefront Jewish Community Council to work with residents of the Brooklyn shorefront, an area which I represent.

Mr. Speaker, I would ask my colleagues to join me in honoring the Shorefront Jewish Community Council on this momentous occasion. I would also ask my colleagues to join with me in paying tribute to the honorees of the council's 20th anniversary brunch, Aileen R. Golden, who will be receiving the Advancement of Education Award, and Hyman Cohen as Man of the Decade.

TRIBUTE TO HUGH A. WESTBROOK

HON. CARRIE P. MEEK

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 1995

Mrs. MEEK of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a dear friend of many years, a man of great compassion and vision and one of south Florida's truly outstanding citizens: Hugh A. Westbrook.

Hugh started his career as a pastor for 10 years in North Carolina and Florida. He is an ordained United Methodist minister with a master's of divinity degree from Duke University and a bachelor of arts degree from Emory University. He served as a hospital chaplain specializing in the care of terminally ill patients and their families.

He was also an instructor and associate dean at Miami-Dade Community College, where he collaborated in the development of an innovative curriculum in death education that emphasized studies leading to a better understanding of the psycho-social issues surrounding death.

Hugh Westbrook went on to found Hospice, Inc., and was instrumental in the passage by the Florida State Legislature of the statute that provided for the licensing of hospices in Florida and the establishment of the first standards of quality for the care of terminally ill people—standards that are still used today. He was also cochair of the National Hospice Education Project, which played a key role in the approval by Congress, in 1982, of Medicare reimbursement for hospice services.

Mr. Speaker, Hugh Westbrook will be celebrating his 50th birthday on March 17, and I want to extend to him warm greetings and best wishes on this important occasion. Hugh has had a major impact on south Florida and the Nation during his first 50 years. I am frankly looking forward to seeing what he will accomplish in the next 50.

HONORING MARJORIE JAYSON

HON. BENJAMIN A. GILMAN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 1995

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to focus the attention of our colleagues the upcoming annual dinner of the Hastings-on-Hudson Chamber of Commerce in my congressional district.

This year, the special guest of honor will be an outstanding woman who has given of herself for many years. Marjorie Jayson is an individual who has especially devoted herself to make Hastings-on-Hudson a community which is the envy of the Nation.

Marjorie, who is 90 years young, was a special education teacher who taught hearing-impaired children how to lip read and helped those with speech impairments. She was also a fourth and fifth grade teacher.

Marjorie, who is affectionately known as "Marge" to her many friends and admirers, has also served as a Girl Scout troop leader, a leader in the Soroptimist Club, the First Reformed Church, in the Women's Club, and as a library volunteer.

One of her former students, Hastings resident Rose Egiziaco, said:

Mrs. Jayson is a real sweetheart, a very caring, compassionate person. Her students were her children; each one of us was very special to her. She gave us the self-esteem we needed. In her book, we all could achieve and we did. She is truly an elegant lady. Many of her former students still have contact with her; that alone tells you how much she means to us.

The Hastings-on-Hudson Chamber of Commerce was well advised to choose Marjorie Jayson as their Citizen of the Year, not only because of her outstanding contributions, but also because this annual dinner dance raises a great deal of funding for high school scholarships. The Hastings-on-Hudson Chamber presents these scholarships once a year in honor of the Citizen of the Year, and $35,000 in scholarships have been given since the program was initiated in 1982.

Mr. Speaker, I invite my colleagues to join with us in saluting Marjorie Jayson, a superb person, teacher, and citizen, and in congratulating the Hastings-on-Hudson Chamber of Commerce for having the wisdom to honor this most sterling daughter of their community.

TRIBUTE TO THE CENTENNIAL
COMMUNITY OF FRASER, MI

HON. DAVID E. BONIOR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 1995

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, this coming Sunday, March 5, 1995, the people of the city of Fraser, MI, are celebrating the centennial of the city's incorporation. The Village of Fraser was incorporated on that day in 1895.

One hundred and thirty-seven years ago, in 1858, Alexander James Fraser saw an opportunity to establish a village when he learned that the Chicago, Detroit, and Grand Trunk Railroad Co., was planning to build a railroad line between Detroit and Port Huron. Since it was common practice to build a station approximately every 10 miles, Fraser purchased 80 acres and was successful in persuading the railroad to build a depot on his land. The Fraser Depot and the surrounding land became known as the Village of Fraser. Although the depot became a center for transportation and communication, Fraser's hopes of building a thriving subdivision were not successful in his lifetime.

The community surrounding Fraser's Depot had become a booming business district by 1895. It has continued to grow and Fraser's 80-acre village is now 4 square miles. This thriving suburban community is home to nearly 14,000 people and although it is considered a residential suburb of Detroit, Fraser continues to be home to many successful businesses.

The members of the Fraser Historical Commission are proud of their community and are planning at least one event each month during this centennial year to celebrate the anniversary. I am proud to have the privilege of representing the people of Fraser and wish them success with each event.

As I said, the city is marking its year long centennial celebration with a birthday party this Sunday. I am looking forward to attending and ask that my colleagues join me in wishing a happy 100th birthday to the city of Fraser. May the next 100 years continue to be prosperous.

INTRODUCTION OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENTS FLOW CONTROL
ACT OF 1995

HON. CHRISTOPHER H. SMITH

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 1995

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, on Tuesday, February 28, MIKE OXLEY and I introduced the Local Governments Flow Control Act of 1995 (H.R. 1085) with the bipartisan support of several of our colleagues. This is the latest step toward providing relief for hundreds of communities nationwide who face enormous financial and long-term waste management burdens as a consequence of the Supreme Court's Carbone versus Clarkstown, New York decision.

As you know, that court decision interpreted the dormant Commerce Clause of the U.S. Constitution in such a way that it invalidated flow control laws which local governments
